

Dear customer,

we feel very sorry to hear, that you want to terminate your contract with ready2order.
For legal reasons, we are obliged to secure the termination with the original signature of the contract holder.
Please return the signed and scanned document by e-mail to service@ready2order.com

Of course, there can be many reasons why you no longer need a point of sale system, but if there is anything we can do for you, feel free to ask us.

Your Data

Customer ID: _____

Company: _____

Contact person: _____

Phone number: _____

Date of Termination (day of deactivation of the point of sale)

at the earliest possible date

at the following date*: _____

I want to terminate the contract, because of

liquidation

temporary limited conducting business

dissatisfaction with our customer service

missing product-features

change to another provider

name of new provider: _____

others:

Name and Signature/Corporate Signature

Place and Date

*Please note the minimum contractual duration, the cancellation period and the determined dates of termination in our terms and conditions.

voluntary disclosure